

PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT CAREER PROGRESSION

Production Management Trainee

- Supervises and coordinates a specific operating department
- Develops production schedule and motivates employees for maximum productivity
- Ensures operations meet efficiency and quality standards

Assistant Production Manager

Production Manager

- Manages and coordinates plant's manufacturing operations
- Develops production schedules, formulates business plans, and manages assets
- Supervises activities, evaluates performance, and establishes efficiency standards

Plant Manager

- Manages and coordinates plant operations
- Safeguards assets, develops the management team
- Ensures quality standards, proper staffing, and efficient resource utilization

Operations Manager

- Manages Company location's performance and profitability
- Coordinates production, support services, and administrative functions
- Evaluates performance, manages assets, and sets production objectives
- Optimizes operations, approves payments, and ensures compliance

Director of Operations

- Manages Company location's performance, purchasing, and inventory management
- Coordinates production, support services, and administrative functions
- Responsible for plant profitability

Regional Director of Operations

- Manages multiple Company locations' performance and purchasing
- Evaluates performance, manages assets, and sets goals

Operations Vice President

- Plans and directs production and activities for increased margins and sales
- Sets performance standards and coordinates planning activities
- Identifies growth opportunities, manages budgets, and capital expenditures

UFP INDUSTRIES